

TITLE IX at SCC

WHAT IS TITLE IX?

Surry Community College (SCC) students, employees, guests and visitors have the right to be free from all forms of gender-based and sexual discrimination. These include, but are not limited to: sexual violence, sexual harassment, gender-based harassment, stalking, intimate partner violence, dating violence and domestic violence. All members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe on the rights of others. SCC has zero-tolerance for gender-based and sexual misconduct.

Any College employee informed of a gender-based or sexual misconduct incident involving students and/or other College employees is expected to inform the Title IX Coordinator immediately.

The College's response to sexual violence, sexual harassment, domestic violence, intimate partner violence, dating violence and stalking is governed by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (otherwise known as the "Clery Act") which was enacted in 1990, and Section 304 of the 2013 Amendments to the Violence Against Women Act.

KNOW YOUR TITLE IX

If you have experienced sexual violence, here are some things you need to know about your Title IX rights:

1. SCC must respond promptly and effectively to sexual violence.
2. SCC must provide interim measures.
3. SCC should make known where you can find confidential support services.
4. SCC must conduct an adequate, reliable, and impartial investigation.
5. SCC must provide remedies as necessary.

HOW TO GET HELP

EMERGENCY/URGENT ASSISTANCE FOR MY SAFETY CALL 911.

To Get Medical Help

Northern Hospital of Surry County and Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital provide treatment of injuries, STD screenings, and pregnancy tests. If possible, do not shower, brush your teeth, urinate, eat, drink or change clothes, as these actions could destroy evidence.

To Talk

There are confidential resources who can provide you with support while allowing you the time and space you need to process what has happened and who can provide you with basic information about your options and available resources. At SCC, that staff member is Anne Marie Woodruff.

To Report A Concern And Get Support

Students who wish to report a concern may seek assistance from other staff. However, students should realize that all employees are considered “responsible” employees, meaning that they must report the concern to the Title IX Coordinator. These employees will protect your privacy by limiting the people with whom they share what you tell them; however, they cannot guarantee you confidentiality.

To Understand The College’s TITLE IX Administrative/Disciplinary Processes

You are encouraged to contact the Title IX Coordinator in Academic Affairs (main floor, A-building). The Title IX Coordinator oversees the investigation of all reports of sexual assault and relationship violence, including the provision of interim measures and final administrative remedies. The role of the Title IX Coordinator is to promote mutual responsibility of members of the SCC community to uphold the Student Code of Conduct and to coordinate the student conduct system.

In certain rare circumstances where it is necessary to ensure your safety and that of the college community, the College may be obligated to investigate known incidents of sexual assault and relationship violence, even if you may not feel ready. Such a decision would be discussed with you in advance, however, and the College would ensure that you have a support person throughout the process.

To Report A Criminal Concern

Sexual assault and relationship violence also are crimes. The College encourages you to contact Campus Police or the jurisdiction where an incident took place for more information about how to report a crime and the criminal process. A criminal investigation does not relieve the College of its obligation to respond under Title IX, and both a criminal and college investigation may proceed at the same time.

What If I Want To Be Left Alone?

This may be a confusing and difficult time. Remember that these resources are always available to you, and you can seek support at any time. Friends and family can offer support as well. You are not alone. There are people who can help you. You have options.

SCC strives to create a campus community free from interpersonal abuse including sexual misconduct.

Harassment And Discrimination Policy

Sexual harassment is unwelcome, gender-based verbal or physical conduct that is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive that it unreasonably interferes with, denies or limits someone's ability to participate or benefit from the College's educational programs and/or activities. Sexual harassment is based on power differentials quid pro quo, which can create a hostile environment, and/or be retaliatory in nature, program or activity.

Please see the SCC Academic Catalog for a complete listing of types of sexual harassment, along with the definitions.

POLICIES

In addition to Title IX, SCC's policies regarding non-discrimination and harassment, along with the Student Code of Conduct outlined in the SCC Academic Catalog, prohibit sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct of any kind. Retaliation against anyone who makes a complaint or who participates in any complaint-related process is not tolerated.

WHY is it so important to report to the Title IX Coordinator?

The College has a duty to promptly respond to all complaints of sexual harassment and sexual misconduct, whether on or off campus. The purpose is to prevent sex discrimination on campus, promptly address reported incidents, limit the effects of harassment on the educational environment, and prevent its recurrence.
